ANDOVER 2001-2002

DEDICATED TO MR. PRICE

“Now, I’ve done this before,” Instructor in English Meredith Price tells his students. “So let me tell you what I don’t want to happen. You leave this class, and then in two weeks we’ll pass each other on the path and you won’t say hello. Let’s not do that. Do we need a demonstration?”

Call it what you will: it’s an exercise in candor, a crash course in consideration. It’s a class with Meredith Price. And it’s something that makes students sit up and listen: compassion.

Now, for the first time since the summer of 1964, Mr. Price is leaving the classrooms of Bulfinch behind for good, ending an Andover career that has spanned some 38 years and four different heads of school. He has run three dorms, coached 12 winning seasons of boys’ varsity soccer, and served on countless committees. What has kept him here, though, is the students.

“Andover’s always had a wonderfully diverse student body,” he explains. “And even though no adolescent would ever agree, I feel like Andover has always been a place that tried to give students as much freedom as possible. We try to teach through freedom.”

Another of Andover’s strong points? “Its tolerance for criticism has always been fairly high,” says Mr. Price, whose reputation as a devoted and inspiring teacher is matched perhaps only by his notoriety as a tireless activist. “I think about Frost’s line on his tombstone, that he had ‘a lover’s quarrel with the world.’ I guess that pretty well describes my relationship with Andover over the past 38 years.” A veritable forefather of the Pace of Life debate, he has campaigned for a reduction in student workload for years. “As you can see, my batting average as far as effecting change goes hasn’t been very high,” he laughs.

In the end, though, Mr. Price thinks it might be another line from Frost’s poetry that best captures the tenor of his time at Andover: “Earth’s the right place for love. I can’t think of any place it’s likely to go better.”

Neither can we, Mr. Price.

Dear Students,

Here it is! Over the course of this year, the Pot Pourri board has strived to accumulate the funniest, happiest, craziest moments of the Phillips Academy 2001-2002 school year. We hope that you will enjoy the finished project as much as we have enjoyed putting it together and that you will use it to look back at your times at Andover with fond memories.

A member of the class of 2001 said to me recently, "After you leave Andover, you're going to want to come back. Appreciate it while you are there, because there really is no other place like it." This may be hard for some of us to believe as we go through the days with a small amount of sleep and a not-so-small amount of work. Yet, if you take a moment to slow the hectic pace of life and look around, even if just for a second, you'll notice the brilliance of Andover. It's everywhere. You can see it in the amazing performances at Grasshopper Night and Rabbot Cabaret, student art openings, championship-winning teams, articles in the Phillipian, sit-down meals with faculty, and even the everyday conversations on the paths. These are times we may take for granted as we go about our crazy schedules, but they are the times that we will all remember most once we leave. Don't let them pass by too quickly.

I would like to thank the Pot Pourri staff for all their hard work, patience, and dedication to this project. It's been a pleasure. So, on behalf of the entire board, enjoy the yearbook, and we hope that it will always help you to remember life at Andover.

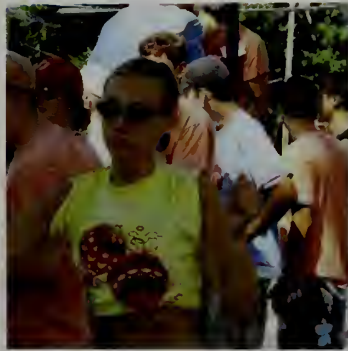

Good luck,

CLASS OF 2005

We anxiously awaited the day that we all would congregate at the prestigious Phillips Academy preparatory secondary school in Andover, Massachusetts. Stress soon overcame us. However, we knew that we would grow, accelerate, and find our own place in the Phillips Academy community. We worried about finishing our homework every night before lights out, to insure that we were in bed and sound asleep by eleven. In a nutshell our class could be defined as “model Andover students.” Of course, as stated in previous years, the blue keys helped us out a great deal and stayed with us throughout the whole year. Oh wait, we got ditched after the first day of orientation. All of the real things about junior year: herds, late lights, invading lower right and Ryley, study hours, horrible schedules, and being made fun of by upperclassmen. When we first got our schedules, five free periods a week seemed like a lot. Little did we know we were being screwed over. Study hours however are one of the rules that we always followed: you know, five to seven in the morning. Lights out? What an interesting concept. Too bad some of us never grasped it. So, if you ever see a group of people so large that it looks like the first line of the military getting ready for battle, that’s us freshman.

Class of 2004

"I rose this morning early to get betimes in Boston town; here's a good place at the corner. I must stand and see the show." - Walt Whitman

This year, the class of 04 nibbled our first piece of freedom and power. And, just like commons food, we like it - even if it is a little salty. The dense haze of confusion that once engulfed 04 has risen, replaced by a somewhat different and entirely superior cloud of what-the-hell-is-chemistry-kiss-my-a$$-cause-I'm-no-freshmen-damn-I-should-have-stayed-out-of-Nathan-Hale, dig? But it ain't no thang. No amount of scientific shaking and baking can restrain the insatiable beast that is 04. We're hungry, we're starving, we're golden, and we'll be together forever and a day. But, alas, our work is never done. There are always things etc. to be put in trashcans. But that's not to say that we'll be running into the street looking for labor - thats the dangerous work of goons and early-morning jogging deerhunters. No, none of that; we are far too sophisticated for such ballyhoo. What is the class of 04? Easy question: its a primeval euphoria filled with burly mountain men and California girls. Though it is hard to avoid the haranguing and bombastic intrusion upper-classmen into our decadent and orgiastic social scene, we manage to escape with only somewhat boosted kool-aid; we find it difficult to dodge the highway robbery of our swingin' cats and bootilicious honeys. On very much the other hand, the lower boys seem consumed by an altogether pac-manish fascination with fresh meat - so it's all good. Bumped out of their previous slum status, members of the class of 04 have been shoved up into the world of the third-best. Robust, indeed, and barking like a dog, the class of 04 still knows how to purr like a kitten. We're a bunch of sweat-hearts. We do, however, have our fair share of under-achievers, seadogs, youngns, swashbucklers, and folks who are asking "Where are my wife and kids at?" Though, like a fine wine, the class of 04 tastes better with age. In any case, we'll make you vomit if you overindulge. On a similar note, how about those theater and history requirements? PA is trying desperately to squeeze out a bunch of thespian-historians - ha, we retort. But we're down - carpe diem, baby. Our stellar class will continue to drudge onward, always keeping our necks turned and eyes open, remembering the good times all the while. But beware; our pace is quick and our tread palpitates with the steady rhythm of aptitude and ability. We have dipped our soft feet into the water of experience; and off we walk down the stream, gone with the proverbial flow.

-Tomo McDonell '04 and Bill Smith '04

CLASS OF 2003

Harsh stares from librarians, discouraging words from college counseling, threes, broken legs, enemies, threes, fed up. These are all the things that uppers tend to get. Okay, so maybe I am a little pessimistic and whiny, but there is no debate that upper year is trying and stressful. We've trudged through long papers, struggled on varsity teams, pretended to understand foreign languages, desperately tried to pad our college resumes, frantically studied exams at three in the morning, and even slept through many first periods with the glimmer of hope that maybe our teachers like us enough not to give us a cut. Despite all of it, I think we have a little perspective now. It's been three years since we were timid juniors with Blue Keys who abandoned us. We've all definitely changed, for better and worse, and through it all, Andover has slowly become our home.

Undertaking leadership is something that we do well, and whether it's on varsity teams or just in the dorms, we're slowly making the transition to senior year through leadership. It's a lofty venture; we have big shoes to fill after 2000, 2001, and of course, 2002. Our time here has always been spent looking up to others. Now we're the ones being idolized (or maybe scrutinized) by other classes.

Academically, we've excelled in difficult classes, decided what subjects we love, what subjects we hate, broadened our academic horizons, and fallen asleep in class. Okay, so we're not all overachievers but we've had fun. Granted, we've lost a hefty number of our classes for having a little too much fun. Hmmmm...

We've definitely been dynamic too, whether we're adding courses or (more likely) dropping courses. But we've all had a chance to reinvent ourselves, and even if we haven't found our grounding yet, we know we still have our senior year to sort things out. Hopefully, this realization will come to us before beginning applications.

So maybe we all have a severe addiction to caffeine now, but the worst of it is over. Except for senior fall. Okay, so maybe the worst of it isn't over, but we know we can handle it. If we can handle date rape education and pretending to be friends with seniors so that we can go to the prom, and reaching for that bottle of No Doz at three am., we'll make it through just fine. Perseverance has been our strongest quality, and now it's our turn to be at the top of the heap. So good-bye upper year, and hello freshman girls.

Class of 2002

2002. Now I know what you're all thinking... Finally a year that's a palindrome! Jokes aside though, it's so really unreal to think that we're actually Seniors. Only a couple of years ago we were all so juvenile – so naïve – so innocent. Hold up — maybe that only goes for some of us. Nevertheless, the time has literally flown by. Matriculation to Convocation was a blur to say the least, yet still managed to be oh so poignant and memorable. Now we rule this piece, and Deuce you know we are living the high life to the most dope of extents. Senior fall was brutal, so I hear. That's too bad. The important thing is we submitted those App's and took those SAT's and now we're schoolin' them all in the admissions offices, if I do say so myself. Don't get me wrong, there's certainly been plenty of trauma and drama, what with the good friends we've had and the good friends we've lost, along the way. But who can shed a tear when Senior Spring is just around the corner? Everything is coming up roses '02: those acceptances, this wild and wacky Indian summer, scintillating Salsa dancing in Ryley on Friday nights. (Sorry kiddies, Seniors only.) Yes indeedy, it's most definitely gonna be licorice and gumdrops and a deserted campus all the way down. There's never been a class with as much charm or charisma or potential as us, Deuce. It's like the Prez always sez – we're the future leaders of our country. Sweet Deal. But seriously my friends, we worked this and now we own it. So let's try and bask in what there is left of a lukewarm glow because we will most certainly miss these days when they've all gone by. We will never all be together like this ever again, but that's what truly makes this all the more spectacular. So let's mount this wave and ride the crest, all the way up until the moment we say peace. Class of 2002 — see you on top.

season, Coach Jon Stableford '63 was proud to have twenty runners under 18:00. Interscholastics reiterated the dominance of the JV squad and the strength of a relatively inexperienced Varsity Squad. The top seven took third, marked by the amazing fourth place finish of O'Donoghue. The JV Crew, led by the first and third finishes of Sullivan and Frecker, took first place with five Phillips runners in the top fifteen. If anything, this year's squad marked a jump in the young talent of the team as well as a great leap in the improvement of individual runners. With twenty runners under 18:00, this has been one of the strongest, deepest teams Andover has seen. More importantly, whether it was Paul Crowley ('02)'s 1:34 drop in his 5K time or Durana's course record, the team's solidarity thrived off individual performances, which brought the team through the difficult, highly competitive season.

Girls' Cross Country

Front Row: Prioleau, P; Barry, K; Tory, J; Jay, H (Captain); Thomas, A (Captain); Donais, M; Whitehead, M; Maxwell, S;
Second Row: Lisowski, L; Rossolimo, E; Maffione, C; Riordan, A; Finn, H; McCann, K; Moore, K; Wilkinson, C; Anderson, S; Deena, S; Third Row: Zhang, Z; Ramanadhan, S; Merrill, J; Sridhar, P; Schlembach, C; Reyner, C; Littlefield, C; Weisz, S; Fraser, E; Rotenberg, F; Ainsworth, K; Gbarayor, H; Lang, N (Coach); Fourth Row: Papantonio, H; Dehart, K; Codinha, C; Franz, A; Murphy, A; Alexander, C; Peck, A; Nkonge, M; Chan, S.

The Big Blue Girls' X-Country team finished an amazing season with a 7-1 record. All Star Senior Melissa Donais handily won every race and continued to improve on her school record, finally settling on a blistering 17:59.9 time. Seniors Donais, Kaitlin McCann, Jess Tory, Sarah Maxwell, PG Pheobe Prioleau, as well as Co-Captains Anne Thomas and Hilary Jay, finished their Andover careers by posting fast times this season.

Returning underclassmen Samantha Weisz, Kathryn Moore, and Anne Riordan as well as newcomers Lizzy Fraser and Hoppy Moffione, sparked the team with their determination and effort. The Big Blue finished second to a very strong Exeter team at Interscols, with Donais, Riordan, and Moore running well enough to notch All-New England honors. Next year, the team will return strong, their sights on the New England Championship.

Field Hockey

Front Row: Smith, S; Wessling, P; Rabess, E; Noero, S; Burke, E; Barendsfeld, A (Captain); Lewis, C; MacKinlay, G; Miller, K; Oh, B; Dolan, K (Coach); Second Row: Fenton, M (Coach); Hudson, M; Crocker, N; Carden, S; Liebermann, N; Conlon, K; Stecker, K; Raducanu, A; Tetrault, C; Locks, L; Cloyd, T; Badman, B (Manager).

The Big Blue field hockey team has had a stellar season. After compiling an unbeaten 8-0-6 regular season record, we advanced to the New England Championship playoffs and earned semifinalist honors. With ten new players joining the core of ten returners, the team came together and set its sights on the playoffs from the beginning. Led by the strong play of seniors Betsey Burke, Sophie Noero, Anna Barendsfeld, Sarah Smith, Esther Rabess, Chloe Lewis, BiNa Oh, and PG's Kristen Miller and Gail MacKinlay, we outscored our opponents 30 to 9. Senior goalie Pamela Wessling posted an outstanding 7 shutouts. High points of the season included netting a season-high of five goals while holding Loomis Chaffee scoreless in our home opener, and a decisive 2-0 victory against the always strong St. Paul's team. Seeded third heading into the playoffs, we faced Westminster in a nail biter quarterfinal game. We countered their big hit style of play with an excellent ball control and passing, but were unable to put them away as regulation time ended in a 1-1 tie. It took little more of one minute for the Blue to net the game winner for an overtime victory. Playing the semifinal game on the turf at Babson College, we fell to Taft in a hard fought 1-0 loss. The hunt for the finals will continue next season when uppers Sarah Carden, Trudi Cloyd, Nyssa Liebermann, Lindsey Locks, Cortney Tetrault and Alexa Raducanu, lowers Marissa Hudson and Kat Conlon, and freshmen Kelly Stecker and Nik Crocker return.

The Big Blue got off to a great start with a solid team victory of Loomis-Chaffee. Offensively, QB Zak DeOssie led the team. Zak was 21 for 31 for 261 yards. His leading receiver was J.T. Simms with 14 catches for 159 yards and two touchdowns. Zak also connected with Drew Palin on a 61-yard pass for a TD. The final Andover TD was a 70-yard interception return by Matt Dugan. Gary Garcia led the team in tackles with 9, and the defense caused four turnovers. The Big Blue then powered over their second opponent, Hotchkiss, with a defense that did not allow a single pass completion and gave up a mere 76 yards. Again, QB Zak DeOssie played well, throwing for 201 yards and two touchdowns. Senior QB Mitch St. Peter also threw a 12-yard scoring strike on his only pass of the day. WR Chris Burnett tallied three touchdowns. Next, the Big Blue trampled Choate 34-0. Led by Captain Jonathan Judson, who rushed for 100 yards and three touchdowns, Andover had a great team effort. After a 90-yard interception return for a touchdown by Gary Garcia, Andover rushed for over 200 yards behind linemen Pat O'Brien, Dean Boylan, Brandon Winston, Dan Leavitt, and Dmitry Serov. Kyle Murphy also played well with 54 yards rushing. We notched another huge victory over NMH. Drew Palin picked off a pass and ran it for 25 yards and a TD. The scoring continued with a touchdown from Zak DeOssie to Sean Mansfield. The defense shined, particularly, Adjatay Nyadjroh, Ben Chang, Ferdinand Martignetti, Kyle Murphy, and Tyler Simms. Later in the season, the Big Blue triumphed over Kent Hill School and ended the season with a 48-15 victory over Exeter, the highlight of the season. Every member of the team contributed greatly. The game can be considered one of the greatest wins in Andover history. Thank you for a great season.

Front Row: Sheldon, D; Kellogg, J; Whallon, J; Tonelli, A; Cote, D (co-captain); McDonald, B (co-captain); Ford, J; Montgomery, A; Takvorian, S; Second Row: Cardozo, K (Asst. coach); Hsaio, A (manager); Pucillo, A; England, W; Bush-Brown, S; Knight, Z; Bacon, M; Katz, A; Smellie, M; Franchot, N; Haynes, C; Banks, J; Scott, W (Coach).

The loss of 10 seniors and 8 starters from the undefeated team of a year ago proved to be a lot to handle for the boys' soccer team of 2001. The team ended the season with a record of 7-6-2, and the year was one of ups and downs. After starting off slowly with losses to Loomis Chaffee and Holderness, PA rebounded with a streak of victories that made the squad begin to look like the championship team of a year ago. After fighting through many critical injuries and suspensions, however, the Big Blue simply wasn't able to come back and win the big games. Many close, heart-breaking losses spelled disaster for the team and with 6 losses a tournament spot was out of the question. Still, though, the season on the whole was as positive experience for all. We came together as a coherent bunch after a very rocky start, and proved that we were capable of playing with any team in New England this year. While luck was not in our favor when the games got close, our record was not indicative of the talent level on the team. Senior leadership such as Bronson McDonald, Dan Cote, Jeremy Kellogg, Johnny Whallon and Mitch Bacon helped push the team to excel. The leadership of the future, including co-captains-elect Nick Franchot and Tony Pucillo, along with Matthew Smellie and Spencer Bush-Brown, hope to lead the squad of 2002 to a New England Championship. All in all, it was another positive year for Andover Soccer.

-Dan Cote '02, co-captain

Girls' Soccer

Front Row: McCloskey, A; Holliday, L; Ashbaugh, H; Checovich, C (Captain); Butler, L (Captain); Herrick, H; Kelleher, C; Belichick, A; Second Row: Birecki, J; McCall, K; Coffin, M; Vardaro, D; Eakin, T; Funsten, A; Takvorian, K; McKenna, B; Third Row: Manekin, S (Coach); Ruccolo, C; Demers, S; Blaeser, C; Lincoln, A; Regner, K; Asplundh-Smith, A; Saraidaridis, J; Rosen, A (Manager); Joel, L (Coach).

The 2001 Girls' Varsity Soccer season was one of the finest in years. After coming back from a rather disappointing season in 2000, the team entered this season with a positive attitude, intending to show their ability and to have lots of fun. Finishing the season with a 13-3-3 record, and coming in second in the Class A division, the PA girls certainly left their mark on the prep-school league. The team triumphantly won most of their games, losing only twice in regular season and then again in the New England Class A championship to Loomis Chaffee. The season's success can be attributed to a reliable defense, a hard-working midfield, and a quick offense. This season would not have been as special and successful without the leadership of the team's eight dedicated seniors, Tenley Eakin, Heidi Ashbaugh, Christina Kelleher, Alexis Lincoln, Heidi Herrick, Lauren Holliday and co-captains Christie Checovich and Louisa Butler. With such driven and talented members, the 2001 girls' soccer team played to the best of their ability. Maintaining their positive attitude throughout the season, the team made it the New England Championship. The 2001 girls soccer team proved to be a great mix of fun personalities and gifted teammates with a wonderful season to look back on.

-Christie Checovich '02, co-captain

Girls' Volleyball

First Row: Kobayashi, A; Lago, F; Huang, V (captain); Siepser, K; Lau, S; Second Row: Park, J (manager); Dumond, D; O'Hern, E; Zucker, T; Wardrop, J; Jiang, S; Le, T (manager); Third Row: Wedderburn, K (manager); Vidal, F (coach); Daigneault, J; Hanley, M; Dickerson, D; Beckwith, C (coach).

Following the loss of seven seniors, the girls' volleyball team managed a 10-5 record this season, pulling off victories against Exeter, St. Paul's, and Deerfield, but losing tough battles against other prep school teams. Co-captains Vivian Huang '02 and Kelsey Siepser '02 were joined in the starting line-up by middle hitter Mimi Hanley '04, chosen as a Boston Globe All-Star at the annual All-Star tournament, and setter Devon Dickerson '04. Together, they racked up 31 kills against NMH, a promising statistic for the upcoming team's victories. Jessie Daigneault '04, Justine Wardrop '03, Huang, and Siepser also stepped up to the front row, putting up solid blocks and strong attacks. In the back row, newcomers Danny Dumond '03 Aiko Kobayashi '02, and Florence Lago '02 joined Sarah Lau '02, Huang, and Siepser in digging up offensive blows from the other side. It was a promising season for a team returning veterans, one-year and JV players. The chemistry on and off the court was impressive and will follow into next year's line-up. Led into the new season by Justine Wardrop and Danny Dumond, next year's team will be returning with a strong starting line-up.

-Vivian Huang '02 and Kelsey Siepser '02

Boys' Waterpolo

The 2001 Waterpolo season began with a slow start to the fall season. The team had lost many key seniors that played huge roles in the team the previous year. Under the guidance of new coach Chad Stern as well as the team's positive attitude, the inexperienced team showed immediate improvements. Led by players Jon Lo, Mike Cashman, Nick Reber, James Maffione, Bryce Kaufman, Dave Hill, Cameron Curtis, Eric Chung, Aaron Stroble, Paull Randt and outstanding goal keeper Adam Arguelles, Andover was able to finish off the season qualifying for the New England Final Eight Tournament. The Big Blue entered Interschols seeded 5th. After an unfortunate first round loss to Hotchkiss, Andover was able to come back playing the best two games to end the season, beating Deerfield and NMH to secure a 5th place finish. With the hope of coach Chad Stern returning for another season and a strong group of returning players, Lalit Kalani, Tom Lesnick, Will Gage, Dave Morse, Pete Whalen, Pete Accomando, Kyle Davies, and Anthony Green, Andover looks to become a very strong team next season.

-Jon Lo '02, captain

Girls' Waterpolo

Despite losing 11 seniors last year, the Girls' Waterpolo team was able to come together and have a productive rebuilding season. Although the team accrued a record of 3 and 10, the seniors on the team were able to train and develop the younger players for seasons to come. The wins of the season came mostly from matches against Deerfield. Leading the pack were the seniors Caroline Lind, Lauren Nickerson, Anneka Benn, Lindsey Williams and Angela Lucier. There were many strong uppers and lowers who contributed to the starting lineup and added wins. One major obstacle for next year will be the switching of seasons, from the fall to the spring. Despite this obstacle the team should remain strong as long as the underclassmen decide to stick with waterpolo in the spring. The truth is that despite the record we had an amazingly fun season, and the team spirit and camaraderie were strong throughout the season, helping us get past the tough losses.

The Boys' Basketball Team entered the 2001-2002 campaign with high hopes. Returning five solid players from last year's squad and adding nine more, the Big Blue was well prepared to face one of the toughest conferences in the country.

Seniors Malik Lewis, Kwadwo Acheampong, and Captain J.T. Simms were joined by Uppers Adjatay Nyadjroh and Zak DeOssie as the returnees with experience in the NEPSAC. The team's newcomers were comprised of talented PGs Chris Burnett, Todd Checovich, Dan Martin, Alan Katz, Louis Stanislaw, and Rick Herlihy; backed by promising new lowers Tyler Simms and Adam Crabtree. Gifted Upper Colin Liotta earned a varsity spot after a year in the JV ranks and rounded out the roster.

Wins over St. Mark's, Cushing, Governor Dummer, Choate Rosemary Hall, and Milton highlighted the first seven games, in which the team compiled a 5-2 record. Chris Burnett and Todd Checovich began to establish themselves as scoring machines, each nailing numerous shots from behind the arc. Dan Martin wowed the crowd on several occasions with acrobatic dunks, while Alan Katz hit an amazing runner at the buzzer in overtime against GDA.

The rest of the season began with losses to perennial powerhouses Tabor and Brewster, followed by wins over Exeter and Thayer, among others. In between came a heartbreaking loss at Northfield Mount Herman in overtime. Defeating Exeter, however, provided added excitement for the regular season finale; while the Thayer win was a big one over a talented club.

Overall, the season has been a fun and exciting one, marked by great fans, and hard-working and supportive coaches. The Big Blue enter the clash with Exeter donning a 10-10 record, leaving them hungry for victory after being edged out of Prep 5 postseason play.

The PA 2001 girls' Varsity Basketball season started off well, with notable wins against Loomis Chaffee and Governor Dummer Academy. We continued this success, winning almost every game. But, despite strong team unity off the court, the team struggled to produce a good dynamic during games. Seniors Caroline Lind, Kaitlin McCann, Angela Lucier, Kristen Miller and Louisa Butler led the team to become smarter athletes by the season's end, averaging about 30 points a game. The team, in general, improved significantly at shooting the three. Lucier and McCann excelled in shooting, Butler maintained strong ball handling, Lind was a powerhouse underneath the basket, while Miller kept spirits high with her trademark positive attitude. Exeter was no match for the PA girls' basketball this year, losing to us twice. But Loomis Chaffee will be the main opponent in the upcoming tournament, where PA expects to seat second.

Throughout the fall term, the boys' varsity hockey team worked hard in hockey basics to prepare for the upcoming season. The team's expectations were high as we began our regular on-ice practice schedule with coach Boylan. We played well in our preseason scrimmages at Brooks and Pingree and we were confident heading into the season opener. However, the season started with difficult losses and a disappointing Flood Marr Tournament. Despite playing hard in every game we were unable to put together three full periods without costly mistakes that allowed our opponents to capitalize and outscore us. Still, the team showed incredible character, sticking together through painful losses and extended losing streaks. This is a testament to the strong leadership provided by the Seniors and Upperclassmen. Mid-season we put together a string of solid games and compiled four wins in a stretch of six games, including an exciting overtime victory over Brewster. We closed out 51 years of Andover hockey at the Sumner Smith Rink with a win over Winchendon.

Next, we opened up the new Harrison Rink against Cushing Academy. In this game, we struggled in the first two periods, but came out strong in the third, winning the period 2-1, and proving to ourselves that we could compete with the strongest competition. Although we did not achieve the success on the ice that we had hoped to achieve, we learned some valuable lessons about character, commitment, and ourselves. These are lessons that will stay with us in lives outside of hockey. Heading into the final game of the year, we are enthusiastic about ending the season on an up note with a victory over Exeter.

The 2001-2002 girls' ice hockey team had a promising season overall. Finishing with a record of 9-9-2, we had both ups and downs. We went a disappointing 1-2 at the Taft Invitational Tournament, but we bounced back to win 3 in a row and to tie a strong Tabor squad in overtime. As a first-year coach, Ms. Odden proved to be key in every success we had as a team this season. With only four graduating players, the team is extremely young and has 12 returning skaters. This was a rebuilding year, and the team should be stronger, bigger, and more experienced next year. Returning goaltender O'Hara Shipe '04 and key players Britney McKenna '05 and Marissa Hudson '04 should help the girls to an even more successful season. Good luck, and keep working hard.

This year's Nordic Ski season was an unusual one. Due to the lack of snow, we had few days of skiing, and few races, but despite the setback, the team remained dedicated and high in spirits. This year's team had seventeen new skiers and only seven veterans. The girls team was led by Jackie Brown, Holly Schroeder, and April Warren. Other top skiers, Paige Ryan, Suzy Anderson and Jenny Byer were unable to compete due to injuries. Anne Sharp and Helen Fitzmaurice added to the teams depth as promising freshman. Scott Silverstein, Vik Bellapravalu, Livy Coe, Jeff Cheung, and Travis Green made up the boys' squad, who despite injury and inexperience look promising for next year. Our coach, Mr. Rich, was a great addition to our team, as well as our enthusiastic assistant coaches, Mrs. Svec and Ms. Goetz. Despite the lack of snow, this was an unforgettable season and hopefully, the depth established this year will bring the team great success next season.

Boys' Squash

This past season was one of pleasant surprises for boys' varsity squash. Going into the season expectations were low, with 5 of last year's top 7 lost at graduation. It was expected to be a rebuilding year, but it has proved otherwise. The team has amassed a 9-5 record, one significantly better than anticipated. The strength at the top of the ladder is the main contributor to this, Will Simonton '03 and Will Walter '03 playing 1 and 2 respectively have both had much better years than anyone had hoped. Simonton has always been a force but Walter's rise from the JV ranks has given a much needed boost to the program. Looking past these two, the rest of the PA roster has proved strong as well. The senior leadership, coming from 3 seed Captain Dan Cote, 6 seed Tyler Mixer, and 7 seed Nadeem Mazen, has been instrumental to the team's success. After the loss of preseason 4 seed Jeff Sandman, there was doubt as to who would fill his spot. The answer came from Jeff Wessler '03, who stepped up to have a very solid year at the #4 spot. Freshman phenom Elliot Beck '05 rounds out the roster at the #5 spot. He was yet another unexpected addition to the squad of 2002. The big wins on the year for PA came against Exeter, Choate Rosemary Hall, and Deerfield. The team fell to Exeter 5-2 in the first meeting but responded with a huge 4-3 victory in the last match of the regular season. Wins against perennial powerhouses Choate Rosemary Hall and Deerfield have given the team confidence going into the interscholastic tournament, and hopes are high. Though at first glance this season was one of ups and downs for PA squash, overall it was a successful one, with many new players emerging to contribute to the effort.

The girls' varsity squash team placed fourth out of sixteen schools represented at the New England Interscholastic Tournament this year at Groton. Seniors on the team were: Jess Tory, Liza Roberts, Diane Liu, Diana Dosik and Gauri Kirloskar. Emily O'Brien '03 and Dosik '02 strengthened the team and made it to the semifinals at interscholastics. Diana Grace '05 had a successful first year on the team by moving up from the number seven to the number five seed by the end of the season. Her athleticism and positive attitude made her a valuable addition to the team. Diane Liu deserves special recognition for her natural ability, competitive edge and determination to win. The team posted wins over: Choate Rosemary Hall, Middlesex, Groton, Nobles, Milton, Rye, Sacred Heart and Exeter. Our few losses were to: Deerfield, Taft and Hotchkiss. Under the guidance of Coach Tom Hodgson, the team had a successful season. As the seniors move on this year, we wish the best of luck to next year's team and urge them to continue to abide by Mr. Hodgson's motto to "win with grace and lose with dignity."

Boys' Swimming had a rebuilding year, finishing 4-4-1 for the regular season. Despite the loss of several key swimmers through graduation and to injuries, the team still persevered through tough practices and injuries to come out ahead with major improvements all around the board. Returning upperclassmen on the team include sprinter and co-captain Jon Lo '02, Mike "I finally discovered my Freestyle under all that breast stroke" Cashman '02, much-improved freestyler Eric Chung '03, outstanding backstroke Bryce Kaufman '03, consistently fast breast stroke and IMer Dave Hill '03, co-captain and All American swimmer Brian Fiske '03, as well as much improved Gavin Kuangparichat '03. Last but not least, solid diver J.C. MacMillan was also a consistent force on the Andover squad. However, they were not alone in the spotlight, with new additions of freshmen Tom Lesnick '05 and swimmer/diver Dave Wilkinson '05 joining returning lower sprinter Paull Randt '04 and distance swimmer Thomas Yeung '04, who managed to swim best times in nine races in a row. To its credit, the team saw its best time-drops in years due to an unrelenting work ethic and hard practices from new head coach Jacques Hugon and new assistant coach Lauren Brozovich. The season couldn't have gone better for the team, and we expect to see more fast times and improvement from the young squad as we look toward next year.

The Andover 2001-2002 Girls' Varsity Swimming and Diving team dominated the pool with amazing swims and many new records. Despite the loss of 10 seniors, the young team pulled together and performed well. Three veteran seniors led the team: Captain Anneka Benn, Lauren Nickerson, and Helen Spink. The underclassmen, who made up the bulk of the team, included Abbe Anderson, Mary Burris, Hee-Jin Chang, Kristina Chang, Krissy Conner, Sarah Demers, Liz Demers, Alex Doty, Caroline Littlefield, Mari Ono, Kate Page, Aviva Stahl, Kim Walker, and Tracey Zicherman. The Diving team, led by Captain Katie Dybwad, and including Jacqueline LeBoutillier and Janis Scanlon, dove gracefully to help boost the swimmers to a fantastic season. Swimming coaches, Paul Murphy and Ginger Fay, and diving coach, Belinda Wolf, were supportive and encouraging throughout the season. The Swimmin' Women, started off strong with impressive wins over Choate Rosemary Hall, Loomis Chaffee, Northfield Mount Herman, Deerfield, Hopkins, Williston, and Suffield. The girls had a close meet against the USS Barracudas, and fell to the traditional rival, Exeter, by a mere 8 points. The team will continue to train with intensity and redoubled motivation in the hopes of victory at Interscholastic Championships.

Hee-Jin Chang '05 rewrote the school and pool record book as well as setting three New England Prep Records in the 50 Free, 100 Fly, and 100 Free. With the help of Hee-Jin, Sarah Demers, Liz Demers, and Alex Doty, the team set a school record in the 200 Medley Relay and chased the New England Prep record all season. Sarah Demers, Kim Walker, Tracey Zicherman, and Hee-Jin Chang also set a school record in the 200 Free Relay. The Big Blue Swimmin' Women worked hard and had fun; congratulations for a great season!

We could not have asked for a better way to end what was already an inspiring season. The boys' indoor track team, with a driven passion, grounded Exeter in an astounding 85-19 victory, winning all but one event. Our 8-0 season closed another chapter in what has been a great legacy for the Andover track program.

This year, the distance squad, led by seniors Geoff O'Donoghue, Tony Bitz, and Pablo Durana, again showed true domination, giving up very few points in their events; senior Travis Pantine and Dave Paolino, and lowers Adam Kapor and John Freker also played key roles in its success. In the sprints, star newcomer Gary Garcia owned both the 50 dash and hurdle races; senior Greg Booth, and lowers David Sheldon and Carey Hynes, made also very strong impacts.

Seniors Zach Knight, Derrick Bass and Dan Leavitt led the shotput; Knight finished his impressive season by breaking the 50-foot mark. With the exception of the throws, the field events were all led by non-seniors – leaving promising hopes for next year. They were Kanyi Maqubela '03 in the high-jump, Peter Chiu '03 in the long jump, and Matt Longley '03 and David Coit '04 in the Pole Vault. Injuries seemed to plague us more than usual this year; veterans like Jordan Harris '02 and O'Shea Galan '04 sat out for most of the season; but this simply allowed for other teammates to front the pack. Our great depth in talent kept us with a perfect record. Finally, a big thanks needs to be thrown out to all of our coaches. In combining hard working athletes with a dedicated coaching staff, the success of the Big Blue Track Team should not come as a surprise,

Girls' Track

Front Row: Burke, B; Barry, K; Atiba, A; McGirt, E; Marshall, E; Bramwell, J; Miller, L; Chu, K; Donais, M; Prioleau, P; Lau, S; Rowe, K (Manager); Second Row: Caputo, K; Huang, J; Chow, G; Wong, J; O'Hern, E; Riordan, A; McBride, C; Deena, S; Rapp, R; Paige, C; Adell, L; Murphy, A; Manning, E; Third Row: Badman, B; Cloyd, G; Jamali, A; Maffione, C; Stableford, J (Coach); Latina, J; DeYoung, S; Bernieri, L (Coach); Kaiser, B; Etheridge, E; Lang, C (Coach); McVicar, S; Boehm, P (Coach); Chen, T; Rockas, M; Wheadon, K; Regner, K; Jou, C (Coach); Collins, R (Coach)

The Girls' Indoor Track Team had a great 2002 season, undefeated in dual meets. The season started off with a win by the 4x200 team at the Dartmouth Relays, among other stellar individual performances. The Lady Blue then went on to consistently crush every opponent that came to Andover. Sam Weisz '03, Betsy Burke '02, Kezi Barry '02 and Melissa Donais '02 (who also ran the fastest mile of any high school girl in the country at the Millrose Games) gained command of the distance races while the sprints were controlled by Jackie Latina '04, Courtney McBride '03, Anne Riordan '03, Katie Dlesk '03, Ellie Marshall '02 and Chelsea MacDonald '02 (whose presence was missed at the end of the season due to injury.) The field events were led by Laura Miller '02 in the pole vault, Kristin Wheadon '02 and Jill Bramwell '02 in the high jump, seniors Sarah Lau and Katherine Chu in the long jump and Erin O'Hern '03, April Atiba '02 and Erin McGirt '02 in the shot put. The girls in blue finished the season with an easy 72-29 win over Exeter, once again asserting their dominance. Thanks to the coaches and graduating manager Kerri Rowe for their help throughout the season and to all the girls whose hard work made this team unbeatable.

-Katie Dlesk '03, captain

Wrestling

Another up-and-down season for the Andover wrestling team finished on a strong note. After an 8-9 dual meet season the team came together for a top 6 showing at Class A's. Leading the way were captains Harry Boileau '02 and Dan Shvartsman '02. Boileau had a rough regular season, but battled through a chronic shoulder injury to win the Class A tournament, knocking off the #1 seed in the semifinals and picking up his second title. Shvartsman had a 17-0 regular season record and stayed untouched in the tournament, beating another defending champ from Exeter 10-5 in the finals to pick up his 2nd in a row.

There were many other major contributors on the team. Andrew Ward '02 went up against many top opponents during the season and hung close, finishing with a 10-9 record on the year. Doug Presley '02 continued to show improvement, finishing 2nd on the team in points, ending up with a 10-7 dual meet record. Pawan Deshpande '02 placed for the 2nd time in as many years at Class A's, taking 5th by avenging a regular season loss to a Deerfield opponent. Andrew McGowan '05 showed promising signs for the future, going undefeated in the regular season despite missing time with a thumb injury and placing 5th at the Class A's. In his weight class was also Leon Fay '04, who was one of the best wrestlers in the league when McGowan was out of the lineup, and will continue to excel next season. Jeff Pena '04 also finished strong, taking a 6th place after missing half the season with an injury. Another freshman with potential was Mark Shvartsman '05, who recovered from a concussion to place 5th at the Class A's. Other big contributors were John Atay '03, James Maffione '02, Tom Treat '04, Phil Caruso '03, and Erik Trautman '03. Overall it was a successful season and the team seems set to improve on this year's gains. They will miss the six seniors from the varsity lineup as well as Leanna Boychenko '02, Gabriel Cuthbert '02, Israel Matos '02, and Luke Spears '02, but have enough young talent to thrive if their work backs it up.

Phillips Academy
ANDOVER

Barbara Landis Chase
Head of School

To the Class of 2002,

You are a palindrome class—the first since 1991 and only the third in the history of the academy. And you exemplify the magical allure of the palindrome—reflecting into our past and into your future with the character and energy and brilliance.

In order to meet the press deadline, I am writing this long before you graduate, in the beginning of winter. In fact, just as you are starting another round of classes and activities. We endured a difficult fall term. We started school on September 11. Years from now when you read this, you will no doubt remember that many minutes had passed between the time we concluded our celebratory opening all-school meeting and the moment we began to hear the horrific news out of New York about the terrorist attacks. As I think back to that convocation, I hear the joyous spirit of the class of 2002—your cheers of "02" ringing through Cook Chapel. I cannot help but reflect on that moment as perhaps a last cheer of innocence in a world that was about to change dramatically for all of us. But as we suffered this tragedy, along with the rest of the nation, we discovered new strength—strength as a nation and strength in communities where, as in our own Andover community, we found the capacity to mourn together and take care of one another. These connections carried us through a difficult and painful period. We held services and created many opportunities to gather in small groups and as a community. We processed our grief and anxiety. We gathered for an all-school meeting on the Great Quad on the very afternoon of Tuesday, September 11, and for a candlelight vigil and interfaith observance in front of the Addison Gallery the next Friday evening, on the Day of National Mourning. Many of us will also recall a particularly meaningful discussion with a friend or a teacher in a classroom, dormitory, or Commons during those dark days.

I felt great pride in how you managed to stay attuned to national and world events and also carry on with your studies and the preparation of those inevitable college applications. You kept at your work, and just as important, you kept your perspective and your sense of humor. And, as always, you stood by one another as classmates and teammates and, most importantly, as friends.

As I write this, we have no idea how the rest of the year will go for the community and for your class, but I have an inkling. As we finished our opening-of-winter-term all-school meeting, a member of your class mentioned in passing that he thought that this would be a good term. I agree. After that, only one term to go. And when you read this for the first time, the day of bagpipes and roses will be approaching fast, and what a blur has transpired between that day and your very first day at Andover will be seen in a backward, happy blur.

On that day, June 2, 2002, you—the palindrome class—all three hundred or so of you, will move on to the next stage of your lives. We wish you good fortune and Godspeed.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Barbara Chase". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal line extending from the end.

Mom, Sis, Lawyer Opoku and Ms. Ruthie: through your experiences and desires to see me excel, you all have embodied my inspiration. Brian, thanks for being the bro I never had.

To all who have touched my life: You all know who you are. It's been one hell of a ride, and for some it's still going. Thank you, for I have taken the best qualities of all of you and incorporated it into my personality. One love.

I'd like to thank Phillips Academy for taking me in as its son. It has showered me with many gifts: an open mind, a family, and an endless supply of opportunities. It has also beaten me hard at times when I was cocky and became lazy. Phillips Academy left cuts and bruises on my mind and soul that, when they healed, yielded a stronger and more independent person. Thanks for teaching me that nothing worth having is easily attained...

Thank you mom and dad for all you've done the last four years, I could not have done it without your love and support. Clyfe, thank you for the trust and support you have given me. Brar and Mitch: We've been together for three years never forget where we started, I love you boys all my friends: You know who you are, I'll never forget the memories we've shared, thank you for making this place what it is. Chloe, thank you for the past three years together, you will never know how much they have meant to me, I love you Y Recuerdo: ESTERNS POR VIDA

Aristotle once said that man is naturally a political animal, desiring maximum hours to reflect on life. The perfect political system, in this case, would give man ample time to sit around and think. It is my conclusion, therefore, that man is naturally a slacker.

* Mom, Dad and Adi...I wouldn't have made it without you all. Thank you for everything!!

Nicknames: Ziggy, Tha' Dream, Dreamah'

To the faculty and staff:

Thank you for all your help, support, and especially for making this the longest four years of my life. I would like to give an extra special thank-you to DR. HAGLER, DR. AVERY, MRS. GOETZE, DR. POTTLE and MR. SMITH.

To the student body, or those who care enough about me to read my senior page:

What can I say guys. It had been an...interesting four years. I want to shout out to the "PA AZN" crew, Shom, Raja, Benny, Izzy, Joe, Justin, Malcolm, Aliya, Nas, Alysha, Yates, Sam and anybody else who thinks they deserve a shout out from me who I could have forgotten this morning.

I may not have gone where I intended to go, but I think I have ended up where I intended to be." – Douglas Adams

Mom and Dad: The step-by-step instructions by phone really did drive me crazy at first, but in the end, it made me feel a whole lot better just hearing your voices. Thanx for all our support and unconditional love. Luv ya!

Mo (guru), 2T (yacko), Naj(dot), and Dodi (wacko): You're irreplaceable. Thanx for being there for me through good and bad.

Liang, Hash Pipe, Quad, Gabz, 12-Gage, JP Texan, and the White Mountains Crew: Wotrrmmrrrrdddddsssss! 3rd floor Bishop rocks da' house like no other!!

Memories: freestylin', gage getting kicked in the head, going skating on the wheeled harp, people getting battered in the shower with projectiles, and so many more...I'm gonna miss you guys

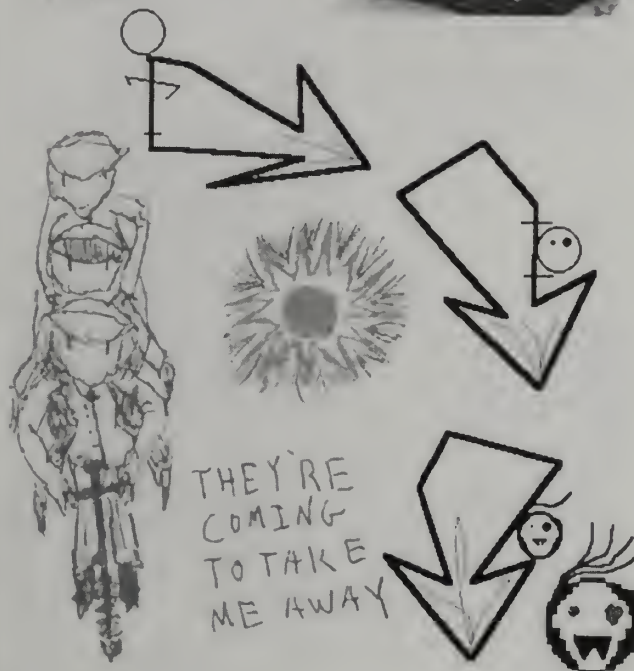

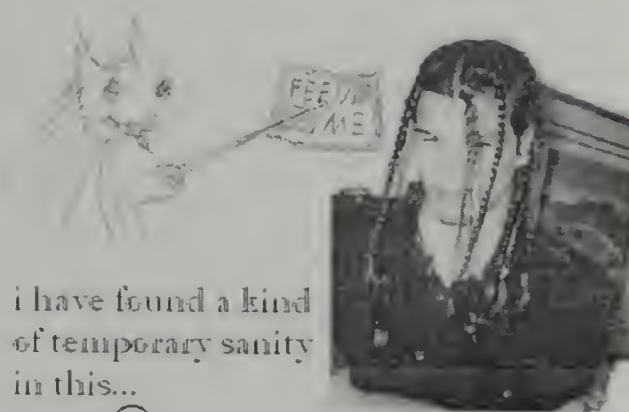

Congrah Buddies: Writing this early, it seems a little premature to prophesize anything, but if Goa works out then we'd have had the most amazing times together.

Fummerjack, Fishman, and Melted-zah: The Mt. Adams descent was unforgettable...had any near-death experiences lately?

Varsity Smash: Rmrrrriyle!!!! There's like...what...twenty of us? We definitely had some awesome times. Talk about loyalty...even throughout exam week ☺

Hahahah i Ba7rain: Time will never keep us apart. I miss you guys.

Class of 2002: Keep in touch and keep it real! Oh-two forever!

I've frequently (and often much too silently) thanked the power above
For your wisdom, your generosity, your grace, and your belief in me.
I've made it, we've made it together.

I owe you the world Mom and Dad!
my stubbornness, my eternal love for life,
my desires for success, my naivete,
and my love for mankind, in all of its disappointments.
For teaching me forgiveness, acceptance, and living for today...
For single-handedly propping me up when I was down,
For laughing with (and at) me...
For allowing me to BE.
You are outstanding, incredible people, friends, and parents,
I love you

Andover may have been the hardest
And most grueling four years of my life,
Yet you and my closest friends have stood by my side.
From freshmen woes to college apps, we've seen a lot together.
To all my teachers, coaches, mentors, teammates,
And friends (you all know who you are):
I owe my every opportunity; I owe my life.
From here, our possibilities are endless...

Something hit me in Australia after sophomore year;
A rock and some water reminded me
That I (we) had something I thought was lost.
Joy, Happiness, the rest of my life, the rest of our lives.
I hope I find you all again, for you have completed me;
You have made me the person I am today.
I love you all, and truly: Thank You

Mommy, Daddy, Tata, and Joey: Words cannot do justice to honor and praise you for everything that you've done for me; I would not be the person that I am today without you. Thank you so much & I love you!

Erin: I don't know what I would have done without you; you were always there for me to share a smile, lend a shoulder to lean on, sing a song, the list goes on. I love you & no matter how far apart we are, I'll always remember you. ☺

To Sarah, Diana, Alice: Thanks for all the wonderful memories, y'all are the best posse a girl could ever ask for.

Happiness is a journey, not a destination... For a long time it seemed to me that life was about to begin-real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through first, some unfinished business, time still to be served, a debt to be paid. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles were my life. This perspective has helped me to see there is no way to happiness. Happiness is the way. So treasure every moment you have and remember that time waits for no one."

I have been so lucky during my time here, and have so many to thank. Mom, Dad and Sarah: Thank you for your ever-present love and support, and for all you have taught me over the years. I am eternally grateful. Thank you to Chuck for giving a young kid a chance on the field four years ago, and thank you to Cauz for showing that young kid what it meant to compete. Thank you Coach Mo for teaching me on the field and for making me a better person because of you. Thank you Coach Cline and all the baseball guys. My time on the baseball field was the proudest of my four years. Ferdman: The past three years have made me who I am. Thanks for all the laughs and memories. Juddy: Always remember the refugee camp. Thanks for always being there. Shvarts*: We've come a long way since WPAA. Along with being a loyal videogame competitor, you taught me what it meant to truly commit yourself to a goal, and to always be true to yourself. Thanks, good times. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): I'm a genius--and so are you. You're a gifted adept--and so am I. That's the law in the New World we're creating. It's very different from the Old World, isn't it: where your greatness makes me diminished and schadenfreude is epidemic and all of us compete for the rare privilege of being a well-appreciated star. In the New World, Libra, you don't have to be shy about how wonderful you are, because you genuinely long for other people to shine. You have confidence in your capacity to be proud but not arrogant; you openly exult in your own mastery but are sympathetic and sensitive towards everyone else. So I figured I might as well share the most important thing I've learned at P

Life is what you make it. So make it a good one. Well, actually, I got that line from the movie, Back to the Future.

But seriously, I've learned that hard work pays off. It gives you a richer life but family and friends are what keep you rich. Had it not been for my family and friends I would have never made it to graduation no matter how hard I tried. So my family, I love you all. Especially my baby sis! And to all my friends, you know who you are. Love yall too!

Holla!

Gabe

"The credit belongs to those who are actually in the arena, who strive valiantly, who know the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spend themselves in a worthy cause, who at the best, know the triumph of high achievement, and who, at the worst, if they fail, fail while daring greatly, so that their place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat." - Theodore Roosevelt
"Someone is a friend if you know all their strengths and all their weaknesses, and you love them anyway." - Mom.

Mom and Dad, you have always been my guiding light. Even through the roughest of storms, you have shone your light to brighten up my road ahead. Thank you for inspiring me to reach for the stars, for if I come up short, I will at least have gotten to the moon. John-Paul, you are my saving grace. Whatever you do with your life, I'm convinced that with your ingenious innovation, your caring heart, and your convincing voice, you will be successful.

To the rest of my family, especially Uncle Roger and Evie, you have always supported me in the last four years and I couldn't have made it without you. Lady, when I hear your bark, I know I'm home. Thank you - I love you all so much.

To my Stearns house counselors Mr. Beckwith, the Wennik's, and the good old Strudwick's, you have been my parents away from home and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for always being there with a warm smile and a good piece of advice.

To other faculty members that have truly made a difference in my life such as Mr. Robinson, The Murphy's, Dr. Pascucci, Ms. Meyer, Ms. Cataldo, Mr. Smith, Mr. Bernieri, and Mr. Koolen, I say thank you.

Gway, Cran, Tak, and Crowley, from the days of A-House, to the days in Stearns, we have really been through a great deal together. You truly made these four years ones to remember.

Trod - I will forever owe you for helping me with my Eagle Project. It really meant a lot to me. You're a great friend.

To the rest of Stearns, thanks for making the dorm a family for me the past three years. I will never forget the joys, the laughs, and the all-nighters we have shared together. But most of all, I'll never forget the unity.

To the Steven's girls - April, Alice, and Erin - Thanks for sharing all the laughs and fun times. I'm going to miss you.

Mom & Dad: Thank you so much for everything.
Lindsay: I'm really glad we've gotten to be so tight, good back with everything and have fun! Salamanca 01: The most amazing summer of my life, where do I begin?
 Birdkiller, Countdown, Banana, winning and losing bets, O'Neill's, Camelot, speakers, cafes in the Plaza Mayor, large and in charge, the terraza in Madrid...you guys are all awesome. Hockey girls: You guys always know how to make me happy, good luck next year! Friends: HC, AH, SP, LC, JM, LI, AH, and the rest. You all know who you are. Thanks so much for being there and for giving me four years of crazy memories, thanks so much for listening and for putting up with me, I love you all.

It doesn't matter whether you're a lion or a gazelle---

when the sun comes up, you'd better be running!

"I keep my friends as misers do their treasure, because, of all the things granted us by wisdom, none is greater or better than friendship."

~ Pietro Aretino ~

Mom: My editor and so much more. For all the understanding, inspiration and love, I can't thank you enough.

Dad: No matter what, you were always proud of me--your support and encouragement means the world.

Erin, Sarah, April, Alice: What would I have done without my best friends? Thanks for the pep talks, laughter, loyalty and honesty. Don't ever lose touch, and call me whenever you need an old friend.

Kelliot: The most brilliant girl I ever knew, and the best EIC The Philippians ever saw. Think of me when you're editor of Cosmo--don't they have a sports section? :-)

Ali: ADAAC, Harry Potter, Day Hall, deep conversations and constant support; you are such an important part of my life and I hope that we will always be friends.

Ms. Scott: I have learned more from you than any other person at this school--not just about writing or literature, but about life and friendship. Thank you for welcoming me into your family.

Day Hall: Lisa, Martha, Belinda and all my girls--It's been a blast.

The Squash Team: It's been great "deserving to win" with you guys, and I hope we find ourselves on court together again, in college and afterwards.

ADAAC: What will Thursday night be without chocolate sauce at 'Gills? I'll miss you!

The Philippians Board: KE--you rock my world, SN, AL, CH--I will think of you every time.

I open a can of Diet Pepsi, or ride a scooter to the bathroom, R. Badangle--thanks for putting up with me. Best of Luck to JL, PS, MR, EO B, EP. I hope your board is as awesome as ours was.

Thanks to all the friends and faculty who supported me and had faith in me these past three years. You've changed me forever, and I've had the time of my life.

"The Brew Crew," Tommy, Hattermer, Pikachu, Philly, Danni, Adam, and Chisch, it's been a fun tradition this year. To the uppers on the crew: good luck with your upper year and senior fall, keep the coffee hot next year, and NEVER neglect taste! Babs and Kaitlin, I'm so glad I've gotten to know the two of you this year. Babs, thanks for being there for Adam this year. He cares about you more than you know. Kaitlin, thanks for being a friend and for caring enough to put up with my phone calls. Y'all try to enjoy the time you have left here as much as you can, and keep in touch. Adam, I can't say enough. We've had an incredible four years, but it seems much longer than that. From the relaxation of lower year through the trials of upper year and the triumph of senior year, you have been a great friend. I can only hope I've been able to help you in some way. Thanks for all of your advice, your counsel, and for your friendship. Don't forget the SC Trips! SC '99, SC2G, and SC2G+1. Don't forget the Streams language, and always remember the brew.

To all my friends here at Andover I thank you for making my experience here at Andover so incredible. I value all of the incredible people I have met and here and the opportunity to see so many people realizing their potential.

To everybody from the PALS program thank you for the opportunity to learn so much and to work with such great kids.

To the many teachers I have had here especially Ms. Boehm thank you for changing my life and helping me so become a more intelligent and more insightful person.

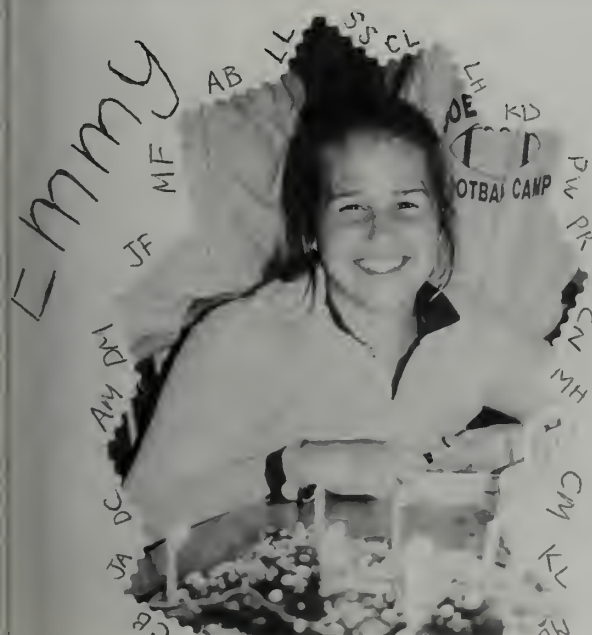

Kelly you have been my role model for as long as I can remember. Thank you for your continued advice and support.

Mom and Dad I don't know how I could even begin to thank you. You have been my greatest supporters every way. I owe all that I have accomplished to your guidance and support.

To Matt and Andy you guys are great friends and I thank you for always being there for me and being friends that I know I can count on. We had a lot of good times together which I will never forget.

Dobrodosli ljudi, pevajte!

Tina, you have been the best sister an only child could ever ask for. We do everything together, and always seem to come back alive and in one piece. Clyde, you've created a home away from home for me. We have some fantastic memories. Thank you for your compassion and energy, and I hope we stay in touch for years to come.

Polo, you are by far the coolest! You must!

Mom and Dad, who would I be without you two. There is nothing in this world that I am happier about than having you as my parents.

Ben, what is there to say...you're a loser but it doesn't bother me. You're still my best friend.

And to all the people that are going to complain because I didn't list your name; I love you anyways. Andover has been great to us, and we have been great to it. I hope that our friendships endure long after we GRADUATE!!!

Why should the world be otherwise

Nay, let them only see us while
We wear the mask

We smile but, O great Christ, our Doug: The memories are endless. Thanks for putting up with my slice. My short game is way better than yours though, just admit it. Thanks for climbing, for Vermont, for all the bad movies. And who can forget ninth grade with Mun-Dawg? Sorry I had beat you at pool so much. I'll miss you man. Take it easy.

M: Thanks for everything - for running with me, for not going crazy when I sang along to the Rolling Stones, for hitting golf balls with me that one time even though golf isn't exactly your favorite game....
You should just admit Eeyore's cooler, funnier, stronger, smarter and just plain better than Winnie the Pooh, though.... I'm really sorry.

Cross County: Despite the fact that you make fun of me constantly, you guys have still been awesome.
Thanks for the laughs, the tears (yes, there were tears, when I went home and cried after you made fun of me - just kidding, your senses of humor are really good I hate to say), and for looking out for me. I would never dress up in a skirt and dance in front of the whole school with anyone else. Good luck in everything.

Mr. Stableford: You are the greatest coach ever. I don't know how else to say it. The confidence you put into the hearts of all your runners is beyond comparison. Your advice has helped me through so much. I don't know where I would be without Cross Country.

D: You are the coolest guy I know. And the best assistant coach too.
I will withhold the quotes I was planning... but let it be known that you are the funniest faculty member out there. The fun never ends when you're around. Peace.

Mr. Rogers: I started running on your team. Thanks for letting me know that it was what I wanted to continue. Even though you made us do way too many striders, I still had a great time. See you in the spring!

Mrs. Pryde: I remember the first day of class you said, "I ever eaten a peanut from one of those little snack b airplane?" and we said, "Yes..." and you replied, "But it 500 miles per hour! What is wrong with you? You could h hurt yourself!" That was the funniest joke I have ever he class was incredible. Don't ever change.

Ms. Fulton: Thank you so much for teaching me to have in my writing, for showing me the beauty in literature, a sharing my love for British humor - especially Monty Pyth denied it, but you did get me to actually enjoy Pride and Take care!

Mr. Maquibela: Our acquaintance has been brief as I writ it has only taken this long to realize what a great teache
But don't be fooled. I will not let you make fun of me fo year! I'm going to get you back! Watch out! Thanks for e though, your sense of humor has really lifted me up. I'll touch.

Mr. Barry: I'm sorry I've had so little time for Math Club but Lower Year was amazing. I can't thank you enough f effort you put into that. My experience just wouldn't ha same without the Wednesday night meetings, or Harvard everything else. I wish you the best.

BYOUNG JIN KANG

"Love conquers all." (Virgil)

Commentary: In The Prince, Machiavelli writes, "Since it is difficult to join them together, it is safer to be feared than to be loved when one of the two must be lacking." According to Sun Tzu, the five fundamental factors of war are moral influence, weather, terrain, command, and doctrine. Further, in terms of command,
 Sun Tzu describes the qualities of a general:
 wisdom, sincerity, humanity, courage, and strictness. He does not mention "love." It is important to note that when Genghis Khan conquered North China, it was through smart leadership and reorganization of his armies, not through "love," except maybe love for power.
 Mmm, power. Yeah. So in conclusion,
 Virgil's a moron.

"For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased;
 and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."
 (Luke 14:11)

"Therefore the sage puts his person last and it comes first, treats it as extraneous to himself and it is preserved." (Lao Tzu, Tao Te Ching)

"Self-improvement is masturbation. Self-destruction is the answer." (Chuck Palahniuk, Fight Club)

Commentary: Yeah, I say, Virgil's an idiot. Love conquers all. What the hell is that? How is that going to help me at ALL, huh? WELL? Moron.

Now, if today was Opposite Day, I'd say, "Andover sucks, it was a waste of my time, I hate you all, thanks for #### things to do with your high school diploma

1. Sell it on Ebay for $1.50.
2. Tell people that you'll give them a dollar if they lick it.
3. Hang it on your wall and show it off to all your homeless friends.
4. Go to get it framed. Before you give it to the employee tell her you don't know what it says and ask her to read it to you slowly. If she does, stop her after every word with more than one vowel in it and ask her what it means. Give it to (censored by the editor) could really use it.
5. Go to a restaurant. After you're seated look at the menu until the waiter comes. Then tell him that nothing looks good, pull out your diploma, and stuff it in your mouth.
6. Go to another restaurant, and after you've gotten your food and taken a few bites spit out the now wet and masticated diploma, examine it, and complain that there was a high school diploma in your food.
7. Give it to someone in return for something funnier than this (e.g. a stick or a bubblegum wrapper—and not just a Bazooka Joe one).
8. Trade it for the Montreal Expos.
9. Carry it around on the streets muttering, "I've taken his identity. Now I must get rid of him."
10. Forge Monet's Bassin aux Nympheas et Sentier au Bord de l'Eau on the back of it and sell it for $30 million.
11. Sell it for $.05 at a garage sale to someone who will use it as a gag.
12. Tie it around your neck with red yarn and wear it wherever you go at college. At every student you see yell out, "I have a high school diploma. I am smart and you are not. Na na na na na."
13. Fold it up and wear it as a hat whenever you go out.
14. Keep it in a drawer.

and now even fewer people like him.

To my Family: I wouldn't be here if it weren't for you. You've always been there to comfort and encourage me, supporting me in every decision. I don't say it enough, but I love you all. To my Andover crew: You encompass everything I love about this place. Chorus and China, basketball and softball, the quads and Riley, the Knoll and Stim, the lawn and library hotspots. You made Andover beautiful and let me be the quirky, crazy bad ass we all know love. To the sexy Stimsonites: From friends and roommates past to those who've been the heart and soul of the school for three glorious years, you've been my second family. Participating in late night sex talks, perfecting my pool game in the basement, beating others away at munchies, those are the things I'll remember. You hold a special place in my heart. To the peeps I left behind: The only group I know all my life, from the BYB to Springton and beyond, we had so many good times. You brought a substantial meaning to the term "friends forever." To the Maqubelas: You welcomed me with such warmth that I never thought of leaving.

I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THE OPPORTUNITY TO THANK ALL THOSE WHO HELPED ME OVER THE COURSE OF THIS YEAR AND I GREATLY APPRECIATE THE EFFORTS THAT PEOPLE MADE IN ORDER TO HELP ME SUCCEED. AS A PG IT IS DIFFICULT TO ENTER A NEW SCHOOL FOR ONLY ONE YEAR, BUT EVERYBODY HERE AT PA HAS HELPED MAKE THE MOST OUT OF THIS YEAR. AS A "FOOTBALL PG"
 PEOPLE EXPECT A LOT OUT OF YOU, AND TO SAY THAT PLAYING FOOTBALL FOR PA WAS AN EXCEL-LENT EXPERIENCE, WOULD BE AN UNDERSTATE-
 MENT. I HAVE LEARNED THINGS FROM THIS SPORT
 AND THE COACHING STAFF THAT I WILL REMEM-BER MY ENTIRE LIFE. HARD WORK, COOPERATION, SUPPORT, CONFIDENCE, AND THE DESIRE TO OVER-COME ADVERSITY ARE EXCELLENT CHARACTER
 TRAITS. THE DESIRE TO WIN, NOT ONLY ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD, BUT TO ALSO BE SUCCESSFUL IN WHATEVER I MAY DO HAS BEEN INSTILLED IN ME FOREVER. VINCE LOMBARDI ONCE SAID, "I'VE NEVER KNOWN A MAN WORTH HIS SALT WHO IN THE LONG RUN, DEEP DOWN IN HIS HEART, DIDN'T APPRECIATE THE GRIND, THE DISCIPLINE. THERE IS SOMETHING IN GOOD MEN THAT REALLY YEARNS
 FOR, NEEDS, DISCIPLINE AND THE HARSH REALITY OF HEAD-TO-HEAD COMBAT." THOSE OF YOU WHO I GOT TO KNOW ARE DEAR FRIENDS TO ME AND I
 ONLY HOPE THAT OUR FRIENDSHIPS CAN CON-TINUE ON. THE IMPACT YOU'VE MADE ON ME MAY NEVER BE UNDERSTOOD AND IS INDESCRIBABLE BY WORDS, BUT YOUR IMPRESSIONS ON ME WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN. I LOVE YOU MOM. THANK YOU
 DAD, PAT, SCOTTY, AND BIG SCOTT, YOUR EFFORTS

Mom and Dad- Thank you for supporting me with everything I've done, both here at Andover and at home.

Mike - Thanks for putting up with me and my sorry excuse of a computer.

Thumper - You rock!

Thank you to everyone at PA for making my stay here such an enjoyable and rewarding experience!!

To Mom: You are my one true inspiration. I dedicate my four years at PA to you, for you deserved four of your own. Thank you for being my sanity through four crazy years (I couldn't have done it without you)!!! I hope that I have made you proud. I LOVE YOU MORE!!! To Jocelyn & Tina: I would just like to thank you both for all of the ways that you two have helped me over the years. May we become even closer as we grow older. To my friends: I have had the privilege of learning, growing and laughing with all of you: thank you. To Kimmy: Thanks for always being the only one to laugh at my not-so-funny jokes! You have challenged me as a person and I am the better for it! To Melissa: Thanks for being such a great listener! I'll see you in the Olympics! To Kyla: Thanks for letting me practice my psychology on you! My bill's in the mail! To Sara: There were many ups and downs, but we made it out as friends, may we continue to be in the future! To softball & Mr. D.: Thanks for all of the wonderful memories. I will never forget all that I have learned on and off the field! To all of those I could not mention: Thank you for everything! These four years have been the best of my life. May we all be as fortunate in the future as we have been at Andover!

I remember the beloved: Mr. McGraw, freshman year, english writing on the board, a quote that read, "Upon his Nature, my nurture could not stick." I wonder now if that's how I'll be remembered by those that have nurtured my journey after my inevitable departure from Andover. I hope to God that the adults that have touched my path know from me that they have more than nurtured but rippled the foundation of my being as a young man.

Good to Golden is what I immediately think about when I think of the friendships that I've had at Andover. Truly, my friendships have gone from good to priceless in a manner of four years and for some even less. And I love y'all all the same.

If there's one thing I've learned to be perfect and never fail in the trials and tribulations of my last four years is my mother's love. Never received and often not directed in the best way but always present. This has been as much of an experience for me as it has been for me. I love you, Mom, more than anything, I would not have chosen any other path for us to take together.

All my friends and teachers: You have taught me some of life's most important lessons both in and out of the classroom. Thank you.

Thanks to Mom, Dad, Phil, Mikey, Oscar and Cleo: if it weren't for you all, I would have nothing. Coach Mo: thanks for giving a short, slow kid a chance, but most of all thanks for being a great mentor. Benny: I can't say enough about you. You've always been the best friend I could ask for and you've somehow managed to put up with me for three years. I will never forget what you've done for me, thanks a lot. Juddy: I've never had a truer friend. You helped me in tough times, and showed me all I have. You were a hell of a captain, and an even better brother. Thank you. Stevie and Abram: The laughs I've had with you guys were the best ever, and when I was upset, I could always count on you guys to make me smile. I will miss you guys dearly, but I know we will see plenty of each other down the road. Frisch: you are the best athlete I know, and furthermore, the funniest 13 year old I've ever met. I'm gonna miss the hell out of you. Don't forget how money you are, baby. Josh M: keep it real kid, your gonna go far. Neuwirth: now that we're leaving I can't steal any more change from you. Jer: It will be weird to go to a school where you aren't there. I'll deal. Later, bro. Jamie: you jolly fool, I'm seriously gonna miss you. All the other Taylor boyz: keep it real guys, keep it real. Shvarts: I hope we go to school together, you are the man, and mean so much to me. Matt K: sorry you had to live with Dan. Malik: holla. D-Bass: what up. Stearns: I'm gonna miss you fools. To Describe my Andover Experience:
At school you are not engaged so much in acquiring knowledge as in making mental efforts under criticism. A certain amount of knowledge you can indeed acquire with average faculties, acquire so as to retain, nor need you regret the hours you spent on much that is forgotten, for the shadow of lost knowledge at least protects you from many illusions. But you go to a great school not so much for knowledge as for arts and habits; for the habit of attention, for the art of expression, for the art of entering quickly into another person's thoughts, for the habit of submitting to censure and refutation, for the art of indicating assent or dissent in graduated terms, for the habit of regarding minute points of accuracy, for the art of working out what is possible in a given time, for taste, for discrimination, for mental courage and mental soberness.

Mom, Dad, Kim, Jeff + Nunnie, thank you so, so much for supporting me + for all the trips up you made. I love you all so much! xoxo

*Thank You Phillips Academy for this year. This is such an amazing place which has impacted my life in so many ways. What an unbelievable student body + faculty. To have been here for a year truly has been and will continue to be an honor.

*Mr Phelps Thank you for allowing this year to happen

Go ahead put your hand in mine....

Ang-a-lu, What can I say. Where are we going to college? You truly are the best roommate anyone could wish for! We did it together! Day 1, Laughing in the B-Room + we never stopped... I love you! Thank you so much xoxo

This is not me.
I made this.

This is me.
I did not make this.
However, my parents did,
Thank you.

Love and thanks to: Sam, Matt, Spank, Parr, Emily, Steph and everyone else who kept me sane. Ha! At least we had fun.

Shoutouts

To my family: Thanks for your love and support over the years. I love you all!
 Mom & Dad: Thanks for clothing me and feeding me both literally and figuratively.
 You truly are the world's greatest parents.
 Sig: Thanks for putting up with my lectures and my criticisms. I only do it because I care. Good luck for next year!
 Grandpa Miller: Thanks for all the times you babysat Sig and me when we were little.
 Grandma & Grandpa Schee: Thanks for the hanana cream pies at my birthday.
 Remember you can call me at any time.
 Grandma Miller: I hope you're proud of me. Rest in peace.
 To the Stuart Boys: Thanks for the past three years. It was a blast!
 Vike: You still haven't gotten me back for the ickle thing.
 Jan: Stay weird, it's fitting.
 Joe: Thanks for all the great movies, but whatever you say Ice Cream Man still sucks!
 Andrew: You better leave your phone lines open, I may need help with Chinese.
 Sam: Remember the Packers always lose in the Metrodome!

Mom and Dad: Thanks for the support and the opportunities. I love you. Sarah: Thanks for all advice and helping me through. "Got that?" "Ready... go." "Oh, my God, I passed... I'm going to graduate!" "Shmeeee!!!" "You smell funny." "Sarah, been 16 years. I can't thank you enough for being there and laughing at the good times. "Losers always whine about their best..." "That'll do donkey, that'll do." "I eat because I'm unhappy, and I'm unhappy because I eat... it's a vicious cycle." "Get off my lassie." "Am I right!?" "Upper... cut." Dan: It's fun. I'll never forget the Upper year double or nothing to California. "A wax enema?" "Saskwatch." Brian: I don't think anything I say can describe our relationship. Thanks. "One of the guys." "Your mom." "Missed visits to California." Stearns: Oh go, go, go. It wouldn't have been the same anywhere else. To the seniors: Adler, Mitch, Brian, Beinecke, Wills, Juddy, Gway, Cranston, Lloyd, Chisch, thanks for the great times and the memories.

To my friends: There's so much I want to say to you...but for now you'll have to settle with I love you all and you have my deepest thanks, I couldn't have made it through without you! (And remember all the stupid things we've done in 4 years, from skinnydipping to THE book to escapades in the stacks and PACCI)

To Chris and Miss Russell: Thankyou! Thankyou! Thankyou!

All men have the stars, but they are not the same things for different people. For some, who are travelers, the stars are guides. For others they are no more than little lights in the sky. For others, who are scholars, they are problems. For my business men they were wealth. But all these stars are silent. You--you alone--will have the stars as no one has them...In one of the stars I shall be living. In one of the stars I shall be laughing.

To all my teachers and peers- Thank you for everything. You've made my experience at PA wonderful. Mom- Thank you for supporting me in everything I do. Steph, Merci, and Andrew- It's been fun, Thanks! Dave- Thank you for understanding me not only in my happiness but also in my often irrational sadness and frustration. You always make me smile. I love you! Katherine- Thanks for always being there for me. You'd make a great psychologist. Melissa- What is in the basement of Pearson? Gaudeamus! Kristin- You have the best taste in movies... Cliff Rocks! Emily- Thanks for being late with me for dances... (every day)! Kyla- Wow, eleven years... maybe we'll end up at the same college too. Sara- You tell the best stories! Gawi- Who do you have for english? Mr. Smith- You're SLICK. Thanks for everything. Ms. Wombwell- Thank you for helping me work toward my full potential not only as a dancer but also as a person.

(Yeah the picture is strange but so were the years)

I could throw in all these shout-outs to people I know, but if I have anything to say to anyone I want to say it in person. In general, to all of the teachers I've learned from, the knowledge, experience and passion that you offer to us is what makes this school so incredible. But that doesn't mean that the students at Andover don't have a part in it all. To all my friends, you are the most amazing group of people I have ever met. To everyone else I'm sorry I didn't have the time to get to know you. Everyone, keep in touch but more importantly keep it real.

And of course a few quotes:

Never shall I forget the time I spent with you. Please continue to be my friend, as you will always find me yours.

Mom and Dad: You have always been there for me, especially during the tough times. We have finally made it through. Thank you for your guidance and for always encouraging me to follow my dreams. I love you.

Chris: You are the best brother I could hope for. Your sincerity and compassion are what make you a great friend and a brother.

Joanna: I just want to thank you for the joy you bring to me and to the family. Your smile and your energy have kept us going. You've always been someone I can talk to.

To My Teachers and Coaches: You have challenged me and pushed me inside and outside the classroom. Your guidance and teaching has taken me to places I only dreamed. Thank you.

To My Friends:

Stein and Greek: Together we make a great team. You have never turned your back to me and have been my best friends.

Smam: I've always been able to trust you and your friendship has meant a lot. You always make me laugh.

Basta: I'll always remember playing guitar with you in my garage and all the good times we've had. To a true friend, thank you.

Brienne, when did you become taller than I? Remember how little we were in Mr. Koolen’s Bio class?

Ms. Kelly! I don’t have enough words to express my appreciation for getting so lucky to know you all four years and become your friend. I

Nathan Hale. I will always cherish your wisdom and warmth.

Ms. Payde, “thanks ma!” I’ll miss you.

And, at last, but not the least, to my family and my host family: I can’t imagine me without you. There’re too many things to thank you, and since I’m running out of space, I’ll just summarize my message: I love you lots and lots!

*Sam House '02: (and I know there's gonna be a few memorable moment to come) Chris, too bad I had to get this done before bball cuz I know we're gonna be nice. We made some tight video projects dog. Keep putting in work. On and off the court (haha). Patio, you're a great friend, OB. Good luck in everything you do. Keep making music and be happy, but don't be afraid to pancake a few d-lineman along the way (and tell 'em about it). You made a good "me" on Halloween (that was real funny). Sean, I admire your work ethic and you'll reach your goals because of it. TE-WR tandem was tight. Good luck Manse. G, man, you better work hard this summer or else I'll blow by you on a slant next year (haha). Just remember MA beats FL every time. But seriously good luck and make the best of it. Louie, keep working and you'll be something, whether on the court or off. Great to get to know you and good luck. *Freddie, tight two years Fred-O. I enjoyed getting to know you better. Mad Bo-bo's. Ketchup and Mustard Incident. That tight thing at Exeter. Good luck in everything dog. *Bball Squad, Not over yet, but 2-0 so far. Florida should be tight. I hope I led you guys well. Malikiel, Kwad, all you guys are my boys. Next year Tree and everyone else, take over. *Kat, have a great couple of years. Have fun and I'll definitely be back to visit. *Liv, you're seriously probably the coolest person I've ever met. Good luck in everything and I hope you get where you want to go. I know you will. *Coach Mo and Ms. E, maybe I should've stuck you guys under the next heading because that's what you've been for about half of the last two years. Coach, thanks for believing in me and helping me out. I'll never forget it. Coach Lou, Coach McGrail, thanks a lot for all you guys did for me. *Others I might have missed, Dr. and Mrs. Q, Ms. Trespas, Ms. Veenema, Mr. Hodgson, Ms. T, Mr. Kip, great teachers, friends. Thanks a lot. *Mom, Dad, and Ty, thanks so much for supporting me. I hope I can make you guys proud. Dad, thanks for everything over the years - the coaching, the rides, the friendship. Mom, thanks too, always keeping me full (the best cook ever), helping me in school all those years, the best. Ty, have a great two more years - make the best of it. Work hard and you can achieve anything. Don't forget that. Everyone else, keep your head up, the best is yet to come. Peace.

*I thank God for the family, friends, talents, and successes he has bestowed on me. To PA, I've learned a lot here, and I can only hope I'll be able to make the most of it.*

Well, son, I'll tell you;

Life for me ain't been no crystal stairs

It's had tacks in it,

And splinters,

And places with no carpet on the floor--

'Bare.

But all the time I've been a-climbin' on

'And reachin' landin's,

And turnin' corners,

And sometimes goin' in the dark

Where there been no light.

So boy, don't you turn back.

Don't you set down on the steps.

'Cause you find it's kinder hard.

Don't you fall now---

'For I've still goin' honey,

I've still climbin',

And life for me ain't been no crystal stairs

Thank you God, for being there for me always, no matter how smooth or rough the road.

Thank you mom and dad, for loving and supporting me. And letting go.

When you look back on your years at PA and remember...

When you look back on your years at FA and remember... how much cooler it was to be a 3-year senior, ordering in, hanging out at Starbucks a d retuning to leave even after the staff has turned off all the lights and left the room... what lights in Morse, the feeling of belonging the way you gave me when I needed them, the hugs you let me give you whether you needed them or not, the tears and the laughter those meaningless phone calls where we talk about nothing, the trips we were going to take but never took. Know it in Spring Arbor, Lemons, Connecticut and Groves. ABS, Cool Little People, Priley, Playah and Rg brothers, being able to just talk, hanging on the great lawns, eating at Commons, walking across the great lawn, turning around at a in the snow, being Happy Birthday as loudly as we can for multiple times, so we can embarrass the rich kid person, procrastinating together, crawling together for exams, certain moments at CVS, Hillyery 100, meeting someone for the first time and becoming best friends in 24 hours, singing because we feel like it(!), leaving to join all the time, down low, making friends you know you'll have forever, finding strange things on the network, all the pictures we took, dancing, dancing and dancing, late night talks where we discuss everything that's of absolutely no importance, going to the friends I'm you know, that someone is there for you no matter what, turning to me, I R A L I Y didn't need to know the inside jokes, the nicknames for guys that me - other than having a sucker to cry on, a no dude and so on in the same terrible tickle test. First Night 2001, the ceremony, the must, having someone there to help you for school, for love, for life.

think of me as well. I know I'll always remember you.

I thank you for the memories.

I love you.

Luckily the ones you wouldn't know how to thank are the ones who know you well enough not to care.

"...A half minute before that you were stepping into high school, and an unhooked brassiere was as close as you ever hoped to get to paradise. Only a fifth of a second before that you were a small kid with a ten-week summer vacation that lasted a hundred years and still ended too soon. Zip! They go rocketing by so fast. How the hell else are you ever going to slow time down? Dunbar was almost angry when he finished."

"Well maybe it's true," Clevinger conceded unwillingly in a subdued tone. "Maybe a long life does have to be filled with many unpleasant conditions if it's to seem long. But in that event, who wants one?"

"I do," Dunbar told him.

Ms Fulton, thank you for being a friend as well as a teacher.
You have helped to define Andover for me. Mr. Heelan, thanks for being an inspiring theatrical mentor. Mr. Perry and Mr.

which to explore them.

Oh, Andover, what you have taught me! I will always remember

I'd say two years has been the perfect time for a stay at Andover.
I'm leaving wanting more, as opposed to leaving feeling like I've had too much.

Thanks to all that have made my time here worthwhile:

Burt House '00 - it was weird, but we had fun;
Brooks - thanks for countless good laughs,
and for being the messiest roommate ever.
Liza - the fun times have only just begun..
To my compadres on the Third Floor of Smith House - KelliBelle, Clo Dog, Chief:
yeah, it's a haul up those stairs, but isn't the view worth it?
Here's to many late nights at 26 Highland Road.
And to everyone else whose path I may have crossed, thank you!
It's almost always been fun.

A word of advice for the class of 2002:

looking in a mirror, because I bet that will

What can I say? I've only been here two years, but it's been an interesting ride. Mom and Dad, thank you for always believing in me and encouraging me to follow my heart and live out my dreams. Neal, you're the most awesome little brother, I wish I were there for you more these past two years. I also want to thank all of my new friends at Andover and all of my friends back home in Jersey. ### *To my Friends*

There are simply no words. Thank you for helping me find all I was looking for. I love you all immeasurably. You will be with me always.

*To my Teachers*

For your inspiration, your dedication, and your patience, I am forever indebted to you. Thank you.

*To my Parents*

You are my heart, my mind, and my soul. No amount of thanks could do you justice. My love always.

*To Sarah*

Thank you for never failing to make me laugh. I love you and I am so proud of you.

I would like to thank the people who have made this past year possible. To my parents and family: you all have been so encouraging to me upon this new and exciting journey, and I thank you for never once disagreeing with my dream of coming to Phillips for a PG year. A sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Scott for being the reasons why I chose to come here. I appreciate all the financial support that anonymous people have given me, and I hope that I have done things here that have made you proud.

During this year, I have met many truly outstanding adults, and it never ceases to amaze me that such an amazing group of teachers could coagulate at one school. Thanks to each of the faculty, coaches, and staff. Zach, thanks for being the best roommate in the world! We had many, many, crazy and funny moments. You have made this year a great one. I would also like to thank the house counselors at Fuess for looking out for us boys. Thanks to all thirty-one boys who were with me there. We had a great time, and Fuess is definitely the best place on campus.

I really appreciate all the awesome boys and girls that I have met this year and become friends with. Thanks for making my Andover experience such a great one. You were all selected to go to this school for reasons that you showed me over the year. Thanks to the Boys' Soccer team for welcoming me to Andover and for providing so many memories.

Several years ago I had a math teacher who told me that Calculus "wasn't hard, but it required hard work". There will be many challenges ahead for all of us in the years to come. Never stop believing that you can do it. Dream Big. I have come to see that this school puts forth the "hard work" that is required to be successful. Good luck, and I hope to keep in touch with many of you in the future.

TO ALL MY FRIENDS IN THE CLASS OF '02:
CONGRATS! I LOVE YOU GUYS!
I CAN'T IMAGINE THIS PLACE WITHOUT YOU.

PS. I'm sorry, this is cheesy, I tried really hard to not be, but it was just too difficult.

EMMY~ Emsy!!! I know you hated me when we met, but I'm glad we worked past our differences, b/c Emmy and Lindsey are stars!! Thank you for not letting me become a workaholic. I'll miss you, but I know we'll talk next year.

SMITTY~ It's funny to think that when you stayed at my house last summer, I barely knew you, but I'm really glad that pot po, field hockey, Adams and the Eagles brought us together. We'll have to party in Philly after we leave this place.

WILLS~ I probably should have told you this before, but I thought you should know that you meant, and always will mean a lot to me.

ABRAM~ You once told me that our relationship reminds you of the one you have with your sister. I think it was meant to be a compliment. I'll miss having you around.

To the ADAMS GIRLS (pod squad), FIELD HOCKEY AND LACROSSE TEAMS, and POT POURRI BOARD and anyone who doesn't fit into one of these categories ~ It's hard to start naming people, because the list just seemed to never end. If you don't know you're my friend by now, you're probably not. But to the rest of you, thanks, and I'll miss you.

Alex, you are a blessing from God. Your great gifts and talents are eclipsed by your wonderful, generous spirit. As you move beyond high school; we thank you for being such an honorable and thoughtful son. Live each day with the goal of being able to know, as St. Paul did, at the end of his life - that you fought the good fight, you finished the race - you kept the faith. God bless and keep you always.

All our Love,

"The ground ball up the middle. The dive. The catch. The forward roll. The out... As for myself, I just stood there frozen. I had never practiced such a play; the only preparation I'd had was in dreaming it over the past twenty-four months. I had just lived the dream. And for the first time in my life, I realized the power of the mind. That if I could imagine it, if I was willing to work so hard for it, then it can happen."

our love, Mom, Dad and Tenley

May your road be long, full of adventure and discovery. Don't hurry your journey. Hold fast to your dreams for they are the touchstones of your character. Listen to the voice within you and live with humility and purity of heart. Dare to excel. Find the magic, power and grace of becoming. "Two gates there are for dreams. One made of horn and one of ivory. The dreams that pass through the carved ivory delude and bring us tales that turn to naught, those that came through polished horn accomplish real things whenever seen." The Odyssey of Homer. May all your dreams come through polished horn.

Commencement

"What we call the beginning is often the end.
And to make an end is to make a beginning.
The end is where we start from."

-T. S. Eliot, "Four Quartets"
